Staff News

- Steph is expecting a little girl on 6th July 2019—Her last day with us before Maternity will be 29th May 2019.
- From May, Vicky will be in the office permanently, Steph will still be here but taking a step back from her role. I am sure you will all join us in wishing Vicky the best of luck in her new and exciting journey as Manager.
- Mel will be taking Vicky's role as deputy during Steph's Maternity and Stacey Riggeard will be covering as Under 2's supervisor. Although there position will be changing they will still be the same Mel and Stacey you know and love! Well done girls and best of luck!
- We have some new staff who have started with us at City!! You will see 2 new friendly faces, make sure you say hi to Alicia and Megan.

Natural Resources

Here at City Day Nursery we are all about recycling and using every day items used at home in our day to day at nursery. Could we kindly ask you to take any wine corks, bottle tops, kitchen roll, cereal boxes, milk tops, jam jars and water bottles.

Recycled Art Projects For Children

Look at all the amazing crafts you can make with things you would normally just throw in the bin at home! Let us all work together to help save the planet.
